Equation (1), term by term: concentration carried the early requirement; market risk and the risk-free rate carry today's mid-band decomposition of the monthly required return; mortality held constant at the midpoint of its range (dashed); concentration is the remainder

Levels: each term of the requirement

Shares of the total: a constant term grows as the total shrinks

